

This is a detailed architectural elevation drawing of a building facade, oriented vertically. The drawing shows a multi-story structure with a complex roofline featuring several gables and a central section with a prominent entrance. The facade is characterized by numerous windows of varying sizes, some with decorative frames, and balconies with railings. A central entrance area is marked by a small canopy and a set of stairs. The drawing includes fine details such as window panes, door handles, and architectural moldings. The overall style is that of a technical architectural drawing, using black lines on a white background.
